President's message

Hello everyone !

I would like to begin this message by thanking Dan and Linus for being our newsletter editors, Kate, John and Siew for proofreading and contributing articles and other U3A members who have written reports for this newsletter. Our newsletters contain important information and I am sure that you will enjoy reading all reports and finding out information about enrolling for next year.

I hope that when you receive this message, you are enjoying the warmer Spring days and our gardens that are looking pretty with Spring flowers. I have a few rose bushes and I am pleased to say that they are flowering quite well. I have just spent three days in Gippsland. The pastures and rolling hills are looking very green from Warragul to Foster.

Have you enjoyed your classes this term? I have visited the Computer classes and the Art Workshop group in the last few weeks. They are learning together and getting to know each other. The Art Workshop group would love some more members so you might consider joining this class next year.

I am very pleased to welcome David, Ron and Claire to our team of tutors. David and Ron are going to run the Computer classes with Dan and Michael and Claire will be taking a Qi Gong class on Monday mornings. Do you know anyone who would be interested in teaching Ballroom dancing or any other form of dancing? We would love to hear from them. We will have a spare time slot at the Pavilion next year when Yoga moves back to the village Community Centre.

Siew has included some information about enrolling online, in this newsletter. We will be starting this new system on enrolment day on 21 November (11am-1pm). Please don't worry about enrolling online-there will be people at the village to help you if you can't do it yourself.

I will be attending the last Network meeting for the year, on 21 November. We have been represented at all Network and Eastern Region meetings. This has been good as we know what is going on in Network committees and in other groups around the state and other groups find out about our programs. I am enjoying meeting people and talking to them about their activities.

Earlier in the year, we welcomed Betty to our committee. She felt that this was a way she could contribute to our U3A group.

Unfortunately their house was sold and they moved away. We need more people like Betty who want to give back to U3A. We have a committee meeting on Monday 19 November at 3pm in the Craft Room. We would love you to come and sit in on that meeting. This would be a good way to find out what is involved in being a committee member. Bring a friend. If you would like more information please talk to one of the current committee members.

Short courses have become very popular at U3A Highvale. I am pleased to inform you that there will be two short courses offered in Term 1. June B. and Anne G. are doing "An Introduction to Felting" on three Tuesday afternoons in February. Evelyn D. is running a course "Beginners Indonesian Language and Culture". This course will be on four Tuesday mornings in February.

We have missed John Keogh, during Terms 3 and 4, but are glad that he is feeling better. We are pleased that he feels well enough to resume as tutor for Life Skills. He has already taken a few sessions of this. Michael and Dan have done a great job working with the computer classes and Siew has kept up with computer issues related to the committee and enrolments. We thank these three people.

Last week, the Art Appreciation group travelled to Geelong to see the Archibald finalists. We didn't like all the art works but we did like the winner's contribution. We went to a new restaurant in Geelong called Sodi for lunch and many people enjoyed soup or burgers. The food was lovely. We have one more excursion in November to Box Hill town hall and then we will have lunch together at Brentford Square.

On 9 October, the walking group headed off to Ricketts Point. It wasn't raining when we began our walk but the rain did start and become heavier, during the morning. We were pleased to get back to the Tea House and enjoy lunch in a warmer environment.

I have heard that the Music Appreciation group and Dance Appreciation have enjoyed some interesting DVD's, during the last couple of sessions. The Current Affairs group have had some lively discussions. The Singing group is learning many new songs and enjoy the time together. When I visited the Art Workshop group last week, it was interesting to see the paintings that they were completing.

Three of our committee members worked at the Town Hall Hub in the city on the 8 October. (the Seniors' Festival) There were other U3A groups who had representatives working during the week. It was an interesting experience and we had many people asking us about U3A and finding out how they could contact a local group.

We have booked a speaker from the Melbourne Botanical Gardens for our end of year function on 28 November at 2pm, in the Community Centre lounge. We have invited our tutors to attend this function so that we can thank them for their hard work. We will have afternoon tea as well to celebrate another successful U3A year. Classes will finish that week and resume at the end of January, next year.

The U3A board is updated every week, usually at the weekend or on Monday. It is a good idea to check for timetable changes and up to date information.

Enjoy your last couple of weeks of classes. Have a happy Christmas with family and friends and we hope that 2019 will be a happy and healthy year for you and your loved ones. We look forward to seeing you back at u3a in the new year.

Yours in lifelong learning,

Jan Clear
President

MYU3A ONLINE SYSTEM Starts 21st November, 2018

U3A Highvale registration is about to go online from Wednesday, 21st November. But for those who do not want to register online, you can still use a printed form. Just download it from our website at <https://www.u3ahighvale.com.au>.

Three key points to note are:

- You require an email address to transact online.
- You cannot enrol in a class until your payment (cash/cheque/EFT) has been received. However, you can browse our website to view the classes available for 2019.
- Your membership badge will be distributed on commencement of classes in Term 1 of 2019.

For those who wish to pay via EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer), here are the bank details

Bank of Melbourne
BSB: 193-879

WEBMASTER FOR U3A HIGHVALE URGENTLY REQUIRED!

We urgently require an enthusiastic person with moderate computer skills and knowledge of the internet to manage our website. The website in its current form serves our needs both in design and layout. The main task of the Webmaster is to maintain the site by updating photos, news, events and changes to class arrangements. Editing of webpages is simplified by using Managed WordPress provided by our site hosting company and can be quickly learnt.

The suitable person would need to have a home computer connected to the internet.

Please contact John Keogh for more information: john.hvu3a@gmail.com

NEW SHORT COURSES

1. INTRODUCTION TO FELTING.

Tuesday afternoons, 1.30pm-3pm. 12, 19 and 26 February 2019. This course will be conducted by June Bushell and Anne Gillespie.

"The Basics of Felting:

This short course will provide a 'hands on' demonstration of the techniques used in felting, employing wool and fabrics or wool alone. The course will cover stretching and pulling the wool to form your design on silk or other fabrics; finally, moistening the wool and then rolling it forms the felt. A more robust felt may be produced without any backing. Materials used during this course will be supplied."

2. BEGINNERS' INDONESIAN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE.

Tuesday mornings 11am -12 noon. 5, 12, 19, 26. February 2019. The course will be conducted by Evelyn Diradji.

A short introductory course not intended for those who already speak Indonesian. Learn more about our close neighbour.

ART APPRECIATION

Designed for those with a love of art, the Art Appreciation class enables members to visit, discuss and enjoy some of the varied exhibitions offered in our art rich city and at times in close regional areas.

Class size is limited to 21 members because of the capacity of the Highvale bus.

Scheduled for the 3rd Thursday of the month, excursions require booking at the CC office and payment of $10 to cover the cost of the bus. Normally outings include lunch at your expense and a chance to discuss what we have viewed.

In 2018 we visited Mornington Regional Gallery, the Archibald finalists at Geelong Gallery, NGV and ACMI among other offerings.

Plans for next year's gallery visits are already underway. 2019 is likely to have a good mix of exciting events for the group.

BALLET AND DANCE APPRECIATION

This group has had the pleasure of visiting many ballet performances without having to travel there, or pay hundreds of dollars to see some of the greatest theatres, performances, choreographers and orchestras in the world. To add to this, the latest recordings are technically brilliant; especially the ones from Covent Garden and The Royal Ballet. They are even better than being there !

This group of Ballet lovers requested more story ballets and so we have been able to see stories told in dance without uttering a word ! However I say a few words about the performances before we begin. It might be about the history, the music, the choreographer, the company, the dancers, or the costumes and /or the scenery and props. Eg. do you know why classical ballet is often referred to as 'Russian classical ballet', but the everyday language of ballet is French ?

BEGINNERS' MANDARIN CLASS

Our U3A has a Chinese language class designed for beginners. This is held on Wednesday morning and our teacher is Claudia Ng. Because we have a very enthusiastic teacher we all have made good progress in our mastery of simplified Mandarin.

For some of us the name Simplified is a bit misleading. Claudia challenges all of us by having to say simple sentences in Mandarin. By making mistakes we often learn different aspects of life, culture and family in China and Chinese people (including how to understand a little bit about food names and dishes!).

Our classmates come from diverse nationalities which enrich our understanding of other cultures through the learning of Mandarin. Often it is written that as we mature we need to exercise our brains by mental challenges and this class certainly provides this. As we struggle with the tones of the language and the Chinese characters, we certainly are exercising our grey matter.

I think all of us are enjoying the learning experience in this class because of the relaxed way we are learning, instead of a rigid approach.

We all look forward to 2019 to continue our journey under the guidance of Claudia.

COMPUTER CLASSES

Like U3A Highvale itself, the 3 computer groups are a diverse collection of participants who meet on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the computer room in the community centre during school terms. There are 22 total enrolled students in 2018.

While our provided hardware is Windows PCs, we engage with almost anything that confounds or piques your interest, including laptops, tablets, smartphones, and the basic areas of printing, scanning, email/webmail, photo transfers.

The social aspect of each meeting is important with life-experiences (and our ages) spanning thirty years – we make sure to enjoy our morning tea breaks along with broad-ranging debate & conversations. We've been known to not even get into the computer room ! (Computer questions will always have priority, of course !)

Thanks to Mike & Kerry (when they are in town) for helping with iPad specific members.

We have observed that one group can claim themselves as World travellers. They have set foot on more than 61 countries – almost one-third of the world !

INTERMEDIATE MANDARIN CLASS

Our current teacher, June Wang, adopts very effective ways to help our encrusted brains learn new Mandarin words and expressions. She uses similarities, word derivatives and extensions to provide lists of allied words and expressions which enable us to extend our vocabulary. Hence we learn beyond the textbook, taking in everyday words such as hayfever and wheel chair. She also uses songs, games and picture cards as reinforcement.

It is clear she puts extensive pre-class preparation and, in addition to ensuring minimum stress, and emphasis on relaxed and friendly environment, make us truly appreciate her teaching technique. We also appreciate the effort and thoughtfulness June puts in at every class. She happily digresses to answer our questioning minds but finds a way to re-focus in quick time.

Our lessons are sometimes '2-way streets' with June teaching us Mandarin and we in return assisting her with new English words. It is satisfying that June appreciates our diligence and positive attitude to new Mandarin frontiers. The result is a happy balance between teacher and students.

We note that some students had left mid term and were looking for more advanced levels to ours. U3A Highvale may want to explore establishing an Advanced Mandarin class in the future. However the current Intermediate class students would like to continue our lessons with June in the current environment.

LET'S DO ..... ?

'Let's Do' provides an excellent opportunity for meeting new friends and enjoying diverse activities. Our activities take place on the 4th Monday of the month during each term, and we discuss and decide as we go along the activities what we wish to 'Do' the following month. Please join us for a fun morning, usually accompanied by coffee or lunch.

Over the last term our activities included Morning Melodies at the Mountain View Hotel, films at Pinewood, and a visit to the Nunawading Library which turned out to be extremely interesting. New members are most welcome to join, and suggestions as to what we might 'Do' are also most welcome.

LINE DANCING

On 2 March 2018 I took over the existing line dancing class at U3A Highvale from Harry Robertson. To err on the conservative side, I initially treated the class as a raw beginner class for just a few weeks to assess the abilities of the attendees. I am happy to report that with the attendees' perseverance and enthusiasm, they have quickly moved to high beginners/easy improver level to-date with continuing confidence.

The regular attendees are certainly keen and willing to learn. While I was away on a 6-weeks' holiday (pre-booked before my appointment) during term 3, the class continued to practise on a weekly basis on their own. They even taught themselves a new dance as a welcome-back surprise for me! That was a great initiative and much appreciated by me. Thank you to everyone for their hard work and continued interest in line dancing. Special thanks to Siew Ngo Kennedy who organised the weekly schedules and to Hooi Ng who taught the new dance during my absence.

Unfortunately the current Capital Reserve Pavilion has been proven to be limited in space in relation to demand. The room can only comfortably cater for 12 dancers with 15 dancers as the absolute maximum limit. A much larger premises would be required for membership growth and more challenging dances. Alternatively, more equivalent classes will need to be run but that means more line dancing tutors would have to be found.

Thank you, class, for your great enthusiasm, hard work and perseverance throughout 2018. Keep up the good work ! It is a pleasure teaching this class.

“MAHJONG “ by Leon Enriquez (a shortened version)

Begin from the east where all things start,
Delight a feast as shrewd mind arts.
Once in a while, mahjong game styles,
Rapport and smiles in crafty piles.

The hurl of the dice to start the game,
Brings fond surprise to joust the same.
Mind shifts fond plots in cards and tiles,
Movements now slot what feelings while.

Watch strategy work random moves.
View chemistry in mental grooves.
Each player feeds a certain stance,
Good fortune needs a certain dance.

Shrewd moves align both path and gaze,
Listen to signs to trek this maze.
Pick and choose well the tiles you pile,
Each player dwells as feelings style.

Watch for the break to join each slot,
Each tiles helps make the winning lot.
Each player knows just how to store ,
Luck seeds the flow for strokes and more.

To soon too swift , the end game tile,
A cheery drift where fancy styles.
Win, lose or draw but not in vain,
Luck shapes the straws in pleasure's gain.

Over 2018 it has been lovely to see our mahjong group grow, and lovely to see the Chinese group starting to play and enjoy their game. We welcome them to join us after Tai Chi as the room is available until 1pm. This gives them time to enjoy their game. Kristine See is a valuable source of knowledge for them.

The English group has introduced some new games which we find are testing our skills but lots of fun. We count up our winning games and so far Pat Chambers is leading the race for 2018 but a couple of other players are very close behind. The count continues until the end of the year.

MORNING BOOK GROUP 2

Our U3A Book Group meets each month to review a selected book.

Our monthly read covers many genres encompassing fiction, biography, history, mystery, adventure and satire, to name a few.

One book which left a lasting impression with the group this year was the true story “Unbroken”, by Laura Hillenbrand. It is the incredible tale of Louis Zamperini who survived a bomber crash and was driven to the limits of endurance against all odds.

We engage in good discourse each month and often some of our best discussions have evolved when the majority of the group have not really enjoyed the book. It is interesting and thought provoking to listen to other members’ views of the storyline, characters setting and writing style of the book which often conveys a different perspective from our own particular impression.

We thoroughly enjoy meeting together each month and welcome anyone who may like to join us.

MUSIC APPRECIATION CLASS

This year we went digital! We experimented with the U3A’s DVD player and the large TV screen in the dining room. After a few hiccups, we were able to enjoy several sessions where we could watch the musicians as well as listening to them.

We continued with our well-established mixture of classical, music theatre, jazz and world music and a once-a-month session where members bring a favourite CD to share.

It has been another successful year for our Music Appreciation Group.

WALKING & EXPLORING GROUP

The Walking & Exploring group adventure out on the 2nd Tuesday of the month. We are an intrepid gang and will be found out and about in all sorts of places. Our outings range from walking and exploring the alleyways in the city, a tour of the Melbourne Town Hall to hiking in a national park or along the foreshore. There is a lot of chatting as we walk and we always find a terrific venue for lunch.

Each year the group decides on a variety of activities – so there is something for everyone. New members are very welcome.
